Queen St Team Message

It's all about Style

Having the ability to guide our customers towards the perfect pair by not only finding something they "like" or think will look "good" on them, but to go the extra mile and find something that is PERFECT and that they will LOVE; and more than anything else, something that is the latest in fashion. We want our customers to walk out of the store with a sense of achievement; that once they take out the sunglasses out of their case and put them on, they will feel more confident and with a brand new sense of self.

Crazy how a pair of sunglasses can have such a big impact right?

Well, at Queen St. Sunglass Style, that's our goal.
